

BIOGRAPHY

UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

CHIEF MASTER SERGEANT BRIAN S. HORNBACK

Chief Master Sergeant Brian S. Hornback is the Command Chief Master Sergeant, Air Force Global Strike Command, Barksdale Air Force Base, La. The command's mission is to develop and provide combat-ready forces for nuclear deterrence and global strike operations -- safe, secure and effective -- to support the President of the United States and combatant commanders. As the Command Chief Master Sergeant, Chief Hornback is responsible for advising the commander on all matters influencing the professional development, training, combat readiness, utilization, morale and mission effectiveness of assigned enlisted personnel. Additionally, he serves as the command's functional manager for assigned command chiefs, group superintendents and first sergeants. Air Force Global Strike Command comprises more than 23,000 highly-disciplined professionals operating in locations around the globe. The Command's two numbered air forces and six wings control the nation's entire inventory of Minuteman III intercontinental ballistic missiles, B-2 and B-52 bomber aircraft.

Chief Hornback was born in Colorado Springs, Colo., July 14, 1967. He graduated from Highland High School in Albuquerque, N.M., in May 1985 and entered Basic Training in August of the same year. His background includes various duties in aircraft maintenance at bases in Michigan, California, Missouri and North Carolina. The Chief served overseas in Guam and deployed in support of Operations Southern Watch, Desert Fox and Enduring and Iraqi Freedom.
